These scholarships held good for four years, the period of the full College course. Students thus appointed are permitted to contest for higher degrees and scholarships. There is a chance for some bright and ambitious young man of Oconee County to get into a first-class college, tuition free. This college is in its 11th year of its existence.

DO SPIDERS IMITATE HUMAN BEINGS?

Three Gray Spiders Lynch a Blacksnake and Torment Him while he Hangs.

A curious spectacle was witnessed by a number of people in Wallaha last Friday morning. Suspended by a strand of spider's web, writhing in agony, and at intervals tormented by his captors, was a small blacksnake, about seven inches in length, dangling from a box counter in Mr. O. H. Schumacher's store. The spiders were wholly masters of the situation, and every few seconds one of the snake's three captors would climb down the almost invisible rope to the dangling snake and tighten the coil about his neck. Like a forked dart the snake's tongue was shot out at his persecutors, for worse treatment was meted out to him than to those who had fallen, and he was tormented constantly until he finally gave up the struggle. This lynch-ing gives rise to the speculative question, are spiders imitative creatures, or are they the originators of the practice of lynching? If the latter, then another good reason for the desirability of their extermination has been brought to light.

Tugalo Items.

TEUGALO, July 10.—We are having fine weather for farming and farmers are making good use of it.

We took in singing at Mr. Tabor last Sunday. Quite a crowd was there. Candidates much in evidence, and some of them good singers, too. We think the school children will be the best. The school children will be the best.

Miss Mary Symmes, of Greenville, S. C., is visiting Major and Mrs. Wm. J. Stribling, and family, near Wallaha. Her annual visit to this family are looked forward to with much pleasure.

The hotel and boarding house committee expect you to fix up every spare room and help entertain the big crowd of the Semi-Centennial. The committee are authorized to charge $1 per day.

Mrs. Turner Lyles died at her home near Double Springs, on last Friday morning at 10 o'clock, after a long protracted illness. She was buried on Saturday at Double Springs burying ground.

Another evidence of the interest the Charleston people are taking in the Centennial is the magnificent contribution of $100 from the Carolina Mutual Insurance Co. Gen. Wagener was its president.

A big feature of the Semi-Centennial will be a monster parade consisting of The Military. The old Wallaha boys, New York, West Union, Seneca, Newry, Westminster and other Oconee towns, Civilian societies, school children, etc. Two to three fine bands are expected to live up to the occasion.

Teachers Finish Work at Summer School.

With the work of last Friday, the summer school, at Wallaha, closed. During the week one examination was held each day, in addition to the regular daily recitations. The examinations were attractively termed "recreation" by Superintendent Edmunds.

Certainly no school in the State has been conducted in a more thorough or satisfactory manner than the Oconee school, and the work of Superintendent Edmunds and Miss Welch met with hearty appreciation from the county teachers. There were many expressions of approval of the plan of holding summer schools, originated and maintained by Superintendent of Education McMahon.

Not the least pleasant feature of the week was the delightful excursion to the tunnel, thoughtfully arranged by County Superintendent of Education Barron. This trip was made by the teachers Thursday afternoon.

Dr. William Edwin Hall, of New York, was a visitor at the Institute Friday morning. He spoke a few words of encouragement to the teachers. In this talk he said he placed the work of the teacher above all other work, even that of the minister of the Gospel. A number of teachers were present at Dr. Hall's entertaining lecture on the "Food Kink," delivered Friday evening.

One day during the school, a number of the trustees of the county were present. The teachers were glad to know that the school was so well patronized. Some were so much so, that at her school house, the interesting and excellent work of Miss McCullough's art class.

An announcement contained in the June issue of The Carolina Teachers' Journal, should be read with interest by the teachers of this county. It is that Superintendent Edmunds will be a contributor to the Journal during the coming year. It should be a pleasure to those interested in state education.

The following subscriptions for the monument to Gen. John A. Wagner and the other founders of Wallaha have been received by the Semi-Centennial finance committee and reported to us:

The Semi-Centennial at South Union.

The Semi-Centennial, which will be held at South Union July 16th, for the benefit of "The White Rock Library Association," promises to be a very interesting occasion. In addition to the regular programme, which is published elsewhere in this issue, a woman's meeting will be held in the afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Coleman will address the meeting on the subject of "Woman's Club Work in South Carolina," and other ladies of prominence will be present, who will assist in the entertainment. An effort will be made to organize a Chapter of Daughters of the Revolution. The ladies of Seneca county, who are eligible to membership in this Order, are requested to attend this meeting. A well selected programme of music will add to the interest of the occasion.

Small-Pox in Jocassee Valley.

It has been reported to us by reliable persons that small-pox prevails in one or more families in Jocassee Valley in this county. The disease was brought there by Ed. Judgen, from Greenville county, who was visiting his brother-in-law, Mack Cantrell, and was taken down with the disease while there. The malady has also made its appearance in the families of the Fishers, who live in the community, caused no doubt by visiting and coming in contact with the family of Judgen. The authorities are requested to be made to organize a Chapter of Daughters of the Revolution. The ladies of Seneca county, who are eligible to membership in this Order, are requested to attend this meeting. A well selected programme of music will add to the interest of the occasion.

Enlargement of the Wine of Cardui Plant at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., July 6.—The Chattanooga Medicine Co., manufacturers of the famous Wine of Cardui, and Theodor's Black Draught, have just completed the erection of three new buildings as additions to their large plant. These buildings were erected on a company over two acres of their space and make the plant the second largest in the world devoted to the proprietary manufacturing operations to-day. When the enlargement is in full operation nearly 2000 employees will be affected. The stoppage of machinery is due to lack of demand for print cloth.

Fall River Cotton Mills Stop.

FALL RIVER, MASS., July 9.—In compliance with an agreement signed by representatives of most of the cotton mills in Fall River to curtail production for four weeks during the summer, several suspended operations to-day. When the curtailment is in full operation nearly 2000 employees will be affected. The stoppage of machinery is due to lack of demand for print cloth.

His Life Was Saved.

ME. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hamblin, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I could even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die with consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me strength. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." The marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all drug stores in the country. Every bottle guaranteed.

STEVENS ON FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

He Will be the Running Mate of W. J. Bryan.

KANSAS CITY, July 9.—Before the Convention met, the Vice Presidential nomination was the chief theme of conversation among the delegates. Stevenson, Towne, Danforth, Hill and Lewis were discussed. Hill's position was not known, but it was said that he would not accept a nomination and that Bryan did not want him nominated.

The weather here to-day is clear and intensely hot. The hall filled early. It is reported that Bryan will come here and address the convention to-night.

At 10:10 the convention was called to order and Rev. Daniel Myers, of Kansas City, offered a prayer.

At 10:52 the calling of the roll for Vice Presidential nomination was begun. California yielded to Illinois, and James R. Williams, of that State, arose. The convention was very disorderly and loud cries for Hill prevented Williams from speaking.

When quiet was restored, Williams nominated Adlai Stevenson for Vice President, an office he once filled.

This nomination was greeted with loud applause, which showed Stevenson's popularity.

Connecticut yielded to Minnesota, and Rose, of that State, nominated Charles A. Towne, a Minnesota Republican who has been nominated for Vice President by the Populists, who also have nominated Bryan for President.

Only three States shared this nomination, including Minnesota.

Gov. Thomas, of Colorado, seconded Towne's nomination.

Senator Grady, of New York, nominated David B. Hill, of the Empire State, for Vice President. This was the signal for a tremendous demonstration, in which delegates from nearly all the States joined. The delegates from Illinois, Minnesota, Virginia and Pennsylvania kept quiet.

Hill, Van Wyck, Stone and Croker had a consultation on the platform, Hill wishing to speak and decline the nomination, and Stone and Van Wyck trying to get him to remain quiet and let events take their course.

At 12:03 Grady finished and Hill immediately declined to allow his name to remain in nomination. He said it would be unfair to him, unfair to others and unfair to his party to nominate him. They should nominate some one more fit.

Hutchinson, of Georgia, seconded Stevenson's nomination.

Cummings, of Connecticut, seconded the nomination of B. Towne.

Williams, of Illinois, claimed that Illinois yielded to Connecticut to allow that State to second the nomination of Stevenson, whereas it had seconded that of Towne.

W. A. Kenny, of Connecticut, then seconded Stevenson's nomination.

Dockhill, of Washington, nominated James Hamilton Lewis.

Indiana yielded to Virginia and seconded the nomination.

McCreary, of Kentucky, also seconded Stevenson's nomination.

Knott, of Maryland, nominated Governor J. Walter Smith for Vice President.

Geo. Fred. Williams, of Massachusetts, seconded Towne's nomination.

Newlands, of Nevada, seconded Towne's nomination.

Kent, of New Hampshire, seconded Stevenson's nomination.

Daly, of New York, demanded the nomination of Hill, regardless of his declaration. This evoked great enthusiasm.

New York yielded to a delegate from Delaware, who insisted on Hill being named.

Governor Stone does not favor Towne's nomination, but has nothing to say.

Teller is at the platform, conferring with Richardson.

Money, of Mississippi, seconded Stevenson's nomination.

Shaw, of Pennsylvania, seconded Stevenson's nomination.

It is announced that Teller will surely speak for the silver Republicans and Patterson for the Populists.

Gov. of California, seconded Stevenson's nomination.

CONFEDERATE 'REUNION.

To be held at Greenwood Beginning the First of August.

Headquarters South Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans.

Charleston, S. C., July 3, 1900.

General Orders No. 48.

The annual convention for 1900, of the South Carolina Division, will be held at Greenwood, S. C., commencing August 1. The opening session will be called to order at 10 a. m.

Our comrades and the good people of Greenwood have made liberal arrangements to entertain the division most handsomely, and we may look forward to having a most enjoyable reunion. Our numbers are yearly growing smaller, and few of us can attend many more reunions—some of us this will be our last—therefore let us draw closer together, and all endeavor to meet our comrades on this occasion. The State comrades always bring together the reunions who were close during the trying days of 1861-65, and of the comrades that can possibly attend the general reunions of the U. C. V. Let every comrade in South Carolina attempt to meet his brothers at Greenwood.

III. Arrangements are being made for the usual low railroad rates of 1 cent per mile.

IV. Each brigade, regiment and camp will please appoint one sponsor, and as many aids of honor as they think best, and let each one take his comrades. Nothing adds so much to the pleasure of such reunions as the presence of the fair women of our State, devoted as they are to the holy mission of the great cause they fought for.

V. Any further details respecting the reunion, let us draw closer together, and all endeavor to meet our comrades on this occasion. The State comrades always bring together the reunions who were close during the trying days of 1861-65, and of the comrades that can possibly attend the general reunions of the U. C. V. Let every comrade in South Carolina attempt to meet his brothers at Greenwood.

VI. By command of Gen. C. I. Walker, Commander S. C. Div., U. C. V. James G. Holmes, Adj. Gen. and Chief of Staff.

JONES IS CHAIRMAN AGAIN.

National Democratic Committee Effects Organization.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—The National Committee of the Democratic party met at Kansas City Club after the adjournment of the conference of the adjourned Senator Jones, who was not a member of the committee, remained outside until the preliminaries were over. Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, who had been mentioned as possible chairman, nominated Senator Jones for re-election, and he received the unanimous vote.

The Senator was sent for and in accepting the chairmanship said that the committee entered the campaign in much better shape than four years ago. Then the members were all new and untried in party affairs, which had been in the hands of men who were overthrown in the great issue dominating the 1896 convention. Now they had a complete organization and were ready to go ahead and make the best fight possible. He complimented the action of the convention both as to platform and candidates.

The selecting of the executive committee was left to Chairman Jones, who will make the appointments after he has had time for consideration. It is understood that many of the members of the last committee will be chosen. A committee consisting of Tillman, of South Carolina; Johnson, of Ohio; Williams, of Massachusetts; Osborne, of Wyoming; and Wilson, of Idaho, was appointed to confer with representatives of the Progressive party and other Republican parties as to the best plan of campaign.

Oconee County Brotherhood.

To the Members of the Oconee County Brotherhood: You will please meet in annual meeting at Corners Church on Friday, the 3d day of August next. It is essential for all the members to be present. J. B. SANDERS, Sec'y.
